“Applicant Federation” means a boxing association, which is applying to AIBA to be admitted as a National Federation, and whose application has not been admitted yet ;

“Application Form” means the form to be filled-in by a boxing association applying to be admitted as a National Federation, attached to this Membership Policy as Exhibit 5;

“Candidates Notice Form” means the form to be filled-in in case of a National Federation holding elections to (i) elect its president and/or (ii) elect the members of its executive committee or board, attached to this Membership Policy as Exhibit 3;

“Congress Notice Form” means the form to be filled-in in case of a National Federation calling a congress to (i) elect its president and/or (ii) elect the members of its executive committee or board and/or (iii) adopt or amend its statutes or constitution, attached to this Membership Policy as Exhibit 2;

“Constitution” means the AIBA Constitution adopted on December 13, 2020, together with all subsequent amendments;

“Election Reporting Form” means the form to be filled-in in case of elections by National Federations, attached to this Membership Policy as Exhibit 4;

“Membership Policy” mean this Membership Policy;

“National Constitution” mean the constitution or the statutes of each National Federation;

“National Regulations” mean the rules and regulations adopted by each National Federation;

“Yearly Reporting Form” means the form to be filled-in each year by National Federations, attached to this Membership Policy as Exhibit 1.

1.3 In this Membership Policy, unless otherwise specified:

- a) references to articles are references to articles in this Membership Policy;
- b) references to a “person” shall be construed so as to include any individual, firm, company, corporation, body corporate, government, state, or agency of a state, local or municipal authority or government body or any joint venture, association, federation, confederation or partnership (whether or not having separate legal personality);
- c) a reference to any of the regulations, or to any provision or provisions in a regulation, shall be construed, unless the context otherwise requires, as including a reference to any amendment or replacement made to the same from time to time-; and

- d) in the event of any inconsistency between this Membership Policy and the Constitution, the Constitution shall prevail.

1.4 All headings and titles in this Membership Policy have been inserted for ease of reference only and may not be considered as an aid to its interpretation.

SECTION A – RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF NATIONAL FEDERATIONS

2. PROVISIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION

The Constitution provides for the following rights and obligations of National Federations:

7.MEMBERSHIP

7.1 A boxing association, which is, or is capable of becoming, responsible for governing the sport of boxing within its country may apply to become a National Federation.

7.2 There may only be one National Federation from any one country.

8. ADMISSION AS A MEMBER

8.1 Subject to satisfying the requirements of articles 7.1 and 7.2, a boxing association may apply to AIBA to be admitted as a National Federation.

8.2 An application by a boxing association to be admitted as a National Federation must be sent by post or email to the AIBA Head Office, and must include or be accompanied by such documents and particulars as the Board may from time to time determine.

10. RIGHTS OF NATIONAL FEDERATIONS

10.1 Eligible National Federations shall have the right to:

- (a) participate in debates and to vote during meetings of the Congress;
- (b) submit proposals for inclusion in Congress Agendas;
- (c) nominate eligible candidates for election at meetings of the Congress;
- (d) participate and enter Boxers in AIBA Competitions and in other boxing competitions with other National Federations subject to the provisions of this Constitution and to any applicable Regulations;
- (e) be regularly informed of AIBA activities, notably by receiving reports, circulars, official information, as necessary to exercise their right as National Federations or as further specified in this Constitution and the Regulations; and

(f) such other rights as set out in this Constitution and the Regulations and as may be determined from time to time by the Board.

11. OBLIGATIONS OF NATIONAL FEDERATIONS

11.1 Each National Federation is obliged to:

(a) comply with the requirements of this Constitution and of the Regulations applicable to it;

(b) comply with decisions to be issued by AIBA, including the Disciplinary Committee and the Ethics Committee at any time, as well as the awards of CAS, and shall ensure that said decisions and awards are legally binding and enforced;

(c) abstain from any conduct which is, or may reasonably be seen to be, detrimental to AIBA or to the interests of AIBA;

(d) submit to the Board a copy of its constitution (together with an English translation of the same if such constitution is written in a language other than English) whenever that constitution is amended or replaced;

(e) democratically elect or appoint its officers and executive body in accordance with its constitution and generally recognized democratic and good governance principles;

(f) supply information as may be specified in the Regulations or as otherwise requested in writing;

(g) manage its affairs independently and ensure that its own affairs are not unduly influenced by any third party or third parties;

(h) pay to AIBA all monies owing to AIBA; and

(i) pay to the Confederation of which it is a member all monies owing to that Confederation.

3. PROVISIONS OF AIBA ANTI-DOPING RULES

The AIBA Anti-Doping Rules provide for the roles and responsibilities of National Federations:

ARTICLE 18 ADDITIONAL ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF NATIONAL FEDERATIONS

18.1 All National Federations and their members shall comply with the Code, International Standards, and these Anti-Doping Rules. All National Federations and other members shall include in their policies, rules and programs the provisions necessary to ensure that AIBA may enforce these Anti-Doping Rules (including carrying out Testing) directly in respect of Athletes (including National-Level Athletes) and other Persons under their anti-doping authority as specified in the Introduction to these Anti-Doping Rules (Section “Scope of these Anti-Doping Rules”).

18.2 Each National Federation shall incorporate these Anti-Doping Rules either directly or by reference into its governing documents, constitution and/or rules as part of the rules of sport that bind their members so that the National Federation may enforce them itself directly in respect of Athletes (including National-Level Athletes) and other Persons under its anti-doping authority.

18.3 By adopting these Anti-Doping Rules, and incorporating them into their governing documents and rules of sport, National Federations shall cooperate with and support AIBA in that function. They shall also recognize, abide by and implement the decisions made pursuant to these Anti-Doping Rules, including the decisions imposing sanctions on Persons under their authority.

18.4 All National Federations shall take appropriate action to enforce compliance with the Code, International Standards, and these Anti-Doping Rules by inter alia:

- (i) conducting Testing only under the documented authority of AIBA and using their National Anti-Doping Organization or other Sample collection authority to collect Samples in compliance with the International Standard for Testing and Investigations;
- (ii) recognizing the authority of the National Anti-Doping Organization in their country in accordance with Article 5.2.1 of the Code and assisting as appropriate with the National Anti-Doping Organization’s implementation of the national Testing program for their sport;
- (iii) analyzing all Samples collected using a WADA-accredited or WADA-approved laboratory in accordance with Article 6.1; and
- (iv) ensuring that any national level anti-doping rule violation cases discovered by National Federations are adjudicated by an Operationally Independent hearing panel in accordance with Article 8.1 and the International Standard for Results Management.

18.5 All National Federations shall establish rules requiring all Athletes preparing for or participating in a Competition or activity authorized or organized by a National Federation or one of its member organizations, and all Athlete Support Personnel associated with such Athletes, to agree to be bound by these Anti-Doping Rules and to submit to the Results Management authority of the Anti-Doping Organization in conformity with the Code as a condition of such participation.

18.6 All National Federations shall report any information suggesting or relating to an anti-doping rule violation to AIBA and to their National Anti-Doping Organizations and shall cooperate with investigations conducted by any Anti-Doping Organization with authority to conduct the investigation.

18.7 All National Federations shall have disciplinary rules in place to prevent Athlete Support Personnel who are Using Prohibited Substances or Prohibited Methods without valid justification from providing support to Athletes under the authority of AIBA or the National Federation.

18.8 All National Federations shall conduct anti-doping Education in coordination with their National Anti-Doping Organizations.

4. IMPLEMENTATION OF AIBA CONSTITUTION, REGULATIONS AND DECISIONS

4.1 Each National Federation shall ensure that:

- (a) the AIBA Constitution and Regulations are duly incorporated into the National Constitution and National Regulations.
- (b) the AIBA Anti-Doping Rules are incorporated in their National Constitution or National Regulations, either directly or by reference and that the National Federations' roles and responsibilities provided for in the AIBA Anti-Doping Rules are duly implemented in the National Constitution or National Regulations.
- (c) all persons affiliated to each National Federation (including officials of such National Federation, as well as Boxers or competition officials affiliated to such National Federation) are bound by the rules and regulation of the National Federations, as well as by AIBA Constitution and Regulations.
- (d) any decision issued by AIBA toward a person affiliated to each National Federation (including officials of such National Federation, as well as Boxers or competition officials affiliated to such National Federation) is legally binding and enforced toward such person.

- (e) all persons affiliated to each National Federation (including officials of such National Federation, as well as Boxers or competition officials affiliated to such National Federation) are prohibited from initiating any legal action against AIBA before a national court or any other body than the CAS in accordance with Section 48 of the AIBA Constitution, except when recourse to the CAS would be prohibited under any applicable law.
- (f) all persons affiliated to each National Federation (including officials of such National Federation, as well as Boxers or competition officials affiliated to such National Federation) shall comply with decisions issued by AIBA, including the Disciplinary Committee and the Ethics Committee, as well as with awards of CAS, subject to disciplinary sanctions in case of non-compliance.
- (g) no third party (including national governments and other public authorities, etc.) unduly influences each National Federation.
- (h) any boxing competition organised by a National Federation is either (i) in full compliance with AIBA Technical and Competition Regulations or (ii) in compliance with national regulations governing boxing competitions provided however that such regulations ensure the same level of safety for Boxers as AIBA Regulations and that AIBA has been provided in advance with a copy of such national competition regulations.

4.2 The National Constitution and the National Regulations shall not run counter to the Constitution and Regulations of AIBA. In case of divergence, only the Constitution and Regulations of AIBA shall apply.

4.3 National Federations are obliged to include in their National Constitution and/or National Regulations:

- (a) provisions that implement the provisions contained in articles 4.1 and 5.1;
- (b) an express clause that in case of divergence between the National Constitution and National Regulations and the Constitution and Regulations of AIBA, the latter shall prevail.

4.4 In case National Federation does not comply with this Section 4, the National Federation shall be deemed to have committed a serious breach of this Membership Policy and it may be suspended in accordance with Section 13 of the AIBA Constitution.

5. OFFICIALS OF NATIONAL FEDERATIONS

5.1 Each National Federation shall ensure that:

- (a) its officials are democratically elected or appointed in accordance with its National Constitution and generally recognized democratic and good governance principles and following an election or appointment system that ensures a complete independence of the National Federation vis-à-vis third parties;
- (b) its delegate(s) at the AIBA Congress have been validly elected or appointed in accordance with its National Constitution or its National Regulations;
- (c) governments and other public authorities are not allowed to appoint members of the governing bodies of a National Federation;
- (d) its elected or appointed officials have an untarnished reputation, implying notably that (i) they have never been sanctioned as a result of, and are not subject to a pending procedure aiming at sanctioning, a serious criminal offence or a breach (except for minor breaches, such as a breach of the rules of the games or a breach occurring with no fault or with a very light negligence) of the AIBA Constitution, AIBA Regulations, the IOC Code of Ethics or anti-doping regulations adopted pursuant to the World Anti-Doping Code or any of its national derivatives, (ii) are not a bankrupt or otherwise insolvent under the law of the official's place of domicile and (iii) are not the subject of any current order made under the law of the official's place of domicile declaring him or her to be insane or of unsound mind;
- (e) its president and the members of the National Federation's executive committee or highest governing body are nationals of the National Federation's country;
- (f) each gender is appropriately represented within each National Federation executive committee and governing bodies.

5.2 In order to be eligible, an official of a National Federation cannot hold any position in any international boxing organization other than AIBA or a Continental Confederation, unless the Board grants its express approval before such official's appointment or election.

5.3 No National Federation shall remain without an elected president for a period exceeding six (6) months.

5.4 If the president of a National Federation is absent due to any cause, is incapable of carrying out his/her function as president, or has been suspended by AIBA or any other body, AIBA may call upon the National Federation to organize a new presidential election, which must be held within three (3) months of notification by AIBA.

5.5 The deadlines provided in articles 5.3 and 5.4 may be extended by AIBA for a valid reason.

5.6 When a National Federation holds elections, it shall comply with the reporting obligations provided for in articles 8.2 and 8.4 below. AIBA shall be entitled to send an observer to attend the National Federation's congress and/or to undertake any other step to ensure that the elections conducted by a National Federation comply with this Membership Policy and the AIBA Constitution.

5.7 Any National Federation's decisions, elections and bodies that are not in compliance with this Section 5 shall not be recognised by AIBA. If the situation is not regularised within the time limit granted by AIBA, the National Federation shall be deemed to have committed a serious breach of this Membership Policy and it may be suspended in accordance with Section 13 of the AIBA Constitution.

SECTION B – INFORMATION TO BE SUPPLIED BY NATIONAL FEDERATIONS

6. GENERAL REPORTING OBLIGATIONS

6.1 In accordance with article 11.1 (f) of the Constitution, each National Federation is obliged to supply AIBA with information specified in this Membership Policy.

6.2 Each National Federation is obliged to comply with any request by AIBA to supply information, in addition to the reporting obligations provided for in this Membership Policy.

6.3 Supply of information from National Federations shall occur in accordance with the instructions issued by AIBA. In particular, AIBA may request each National Federation to use web-based portals in order to supply information to AIBA.

6.4 Each National Federation is obliged to spontaneously supply the following information to AIBA:

- (a) Each year, at the latest by February 28, each National Federation shall comply with its yearly reporting obligation in accordance with article 7 below;
- (b) In case of significant event affecting each National Federation, or if each National Federation adopts or amend its National Constitution or holds elections, the concerned National Federation shall comply with the reporting obligation provided in article 8 below;

- (c) Before any AIBA Congress, each National Federation shall comply with the reporting obligations provided in article 9 and provide any further information as may be required by AIBA to ensure that a National Federation meets the criteria to be an Eligible National Federation.

7. YEARLY REPORTING

- 7.1 Each year, at the latest by February 28, each National Federation shall supply the information sought by AIBA by filling-in the Yearly Reporting Form attached to this Membership Policy as Exhibit 1. AIBA may also ask each National Federation to fill-in an online form consistent with the Yearly Reporting Form attached to this Membership Policy.
- 7.2 AIBA shall be entitled to ask further information to National Federations, or to request evidence confirming the accuracy of the information supplied in the Yearly Reporting Form.

8. REPORTING OF SIGNIFICANT EVENTS AFFECTING A NATIONAL FEDERATION

- 8.1 Each National Federation is obliged to immediately inform AIBA:
  - (a) if an important information supplied in the Yearly Reporting Form is no longer valid;
  - (b) if a significant event occurs within a National Federation (including resignation, death or suspension of the president of a National Federation, suspension of a National Federation, etc);
  - (c) if a significant event likely to affect a National Federation occurs in the country of that National Federation, even without involvement or responsibility of the National Federation (such as suspension of a country National Olympic Committee, declaration of non-compliance of a country's National Anti-doping Organisation by the World Anti-Doping Agency, etc.).
- 8.2 In the event that a National Federation plans to hold a congress or general meeting of its members in order to (i) elect its president and/or (ii) elect the members of its executive committee or board and/or (iii) adopt or amend its statutes or constitution, notice of such congress shall be given to AIBA at least one month before the date of the congress, specifying the place and date of the congress by filling-in the Congress Notice Form attached to this Membership Policy as Exhibit 2. A list of candidates for election as president and/or as members of a National Federation's executive committee or board shall be submitted to AIBA Head Office at least fifteen (15) days before the congress by filling-in the Candidates Notice Form attached to this Membership Policy as Exhibit 3.

8.3 At the latest one month after a congress adopting or amending the constitution or statutes of a National Federation, the National Federation shall send to the Board a copy of its constitution (together with an English translation) in accordance with article 11.1 (d) of the Constitution.

8.4 At the latest one week after the date of a National Federation's congress where a president and/or members of a National Federation's executive committee or board have been elected, each National Federation shall report to AIBA the outcome of such elections by filling-in the Election Reporting Form attached to this Membership Policy as Exhibit 4.

8.5 AIBA may also ask each National Federation to fill-in online forms consistent with the Congress Notice Form, the Candidates Notice Form and the Election Reporting Form attached to this Membership Policy.

9. INFORMATION TO BE SUPPLIED BEFORE AN AIBA CONGRESS

9.1 When registering to an AIBA Congress, each National Federation shall be obliged to supply AIBA with all necessary information sought by AIBA in order to:

- (a) allow AIBA to determine whether a National Federation is deemed to be an Eligible National Federation in accordance with article 16.2 of the Constitution;
- (b) show to AIBA that its delegate(s) have been validly appointed in accordance with article 16.4 of the AIBA Constitution.

10. APPLICATION AS A MEMBER

10.1 A boxing association applying to be admitted as a National Federation must fill-in the Application Form attached to this Membership Policy as Exhibit 5. AIBA may also ask that the Application Form be filled-in an online form consistent with the Application Form.

- 10.2 The Application Form shall be sent to AIBA with the following mandatory supporting documents:
- (a) Written confirmation issued by the local National Olympic Committee or Ministry of Sport that the Applicant Federation is the only boxing association responsible for governing the sport of boxing within its country
  - (b) Description about the current situation with boxing in the country of the Applicant Federation
  - (c) Certificate issued by the government authorities confirming the registration of the Applicant Federation or any document showing that the Applicant Federation is validly constituted and in good standing
  - (d) Copy of the constitution of the Applicant Federation
  - (e) Confirmation from a bank that the Applicant Federation holds a bank account in its own name
  - (f) Copy of the minutes of the last elective congress of the Applicant Federation
  - (g) Copy of the passports of each member of the board of the Applicant Federation (including president and other officials)
  - (h) Copy of certificate from criminal records for each member of the board of the Applicant Federation (including president and other officials);
  - (i) Copy of the last financial statements of the Applicant Federation.
- 10.3 The Applicant Federation may provide explanations as to why some requested documents or information do not exist. The AIBA Head Office may request any additional information and documentation it deemed fit to prepare the application file to be presented to the Board in accordance with the Constitution.
- 10.4 Communication of the Application Form and supporting document may occur either by post or email, or as further directed by the AIBA Head Office.
- 10.5 The admission procedure is further detailed in the Constitution.

SECTION C – MISCELLANEOUS

11. FINAL PROVISIONS

- 11.1 In the event this Membership Policy is translated into a different language or languages, the English version shall prevail.
- 11.2 This Membership Policy has been adopted by the Board at its meeting on January 22, 2021, and amended on November 26, 2021. It comes into force with immediate effect.
