Dear Colleagues, Dear Athletes, Dear Friends,

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to beautiful Istanbul for the IBA Women's World Boxing Championships.

With the world's top women boxers participating, this flagship IBA competition promises to provide weeks of truly memorable bouts.

I would like to offer my sincere thanks to the Turkish Government, the Turkish Boxing Federation, the Turkish people and all involved in the organisation of this event.

The circumstances have certainly been challenging. However, your hard work and dedication have ensured athletes have the chance to fulfil their dreams of becoming world champions, and more importantly, they are able to do so in a safe environment. As always, the well-being of our boxers, coaches, officials, and staff is our top priority.

At IBA, our mission is to provide equal and fair opportunities for our national teams, in particular for our boxers and coaches. That is why we have launched the "Fair Chance, Fair Fight" campaign. This initiative reaffirms IBA's commitment to equality and seeks to ensure displaced women athletes have the chance to show their skill and years of hard work on the global stage as part of the Fair Chance team. All the boxers who are going to compete in Istanbul are outstanding role models in their countries and for women and girls around the world.

As gender equality is one of our main goals in the sport of boxing, I am happy to confirm that prize money for the medalists will be exactly the same as for Men's World Championships. For the first time in IBA's 75-year history, medal winners will be rewarded with significant prize money from IBA. The prize money fund has been set at $2,4 million USD. The prize for first place is $100 000 USD. Silver medalists receive $50 000 USD, and both bronzes in each weight category receive $25 000 USD.

During the World Championships in Turkey, IBA Extraordinary Congress will be held, and major reforms of the organization will be announced. The leaders of the NFs, boxers and champions of past years will visit Turkey, making these Championships even more historical.

We invite all boxing fans in Istanbul and around the globe to join this festival of sport. Whether you watch the fights at the venue, on TV or online, we hope you enjoy the world's top women boxers competing to the best of their ability. Thank you in advance for your valued support!

I sincerely wish all participating athletes the very best of luck and hope this World Championships will become one of the highlights of your career!

Sincerely Yours,

Umar Kremlev

President of International Boxing Association (IBA)

Dear IBA Boxing Family Members, Dear Athletes and Sportspeople,

It is a great honour to host such an important event as 2022 Women's Boxing World championships in our great city of İstanbul. We are truly honoured to welcome every participant, each one of our guests with warm Turkish hospitality.

Our successful experience with past Olympic, World, and European events and championships gives us great confidence to help the world's best women boxers achieve their dreams. We have organised this tournament to the minutest details with a deep focus on providing the best experience for the participants, to enjoy the most important event for the world's women boxing, to keep the competition at the highest level, and to show only the best to the world.

I would like to thank President Umar Kremlev for his unprecedented contribution to organise this event and his great help to make dreams come true in the dream city of İstanbul. Turkish Boxing Federation is looking forward to your visit to Turkey to share this unique experience.
