Summary

I have a range of skills which I believe would be beneficial to IBA and National Federations. In conjunction with my extensive public service career in law, accounting and audit, I have volunteered in Boxing roles since 2003. Since 2010 I have had the privilege of representing my country on the IBA Women's Committee. I am passionate about seeing the national growth and development of boxing; and in particular seeing women's boxing receive acceptance and recognition. My passion for boxing started from my own son's involvement in the sport and seeing the physical and mental health benefits the sport can offer participants particularly young persons. I believe my extensive professional career and volunteer work in Boxing will provide benefits if elected as IBA Independent Director.
