Boxing Association (IBA)

Dear Boxing Family,

One of the biggest sporting events is coming closer – IBA Women's World Boxing Championship, which is going to take place in New Delhi, India in March 2023. This is not the first time that top women boxers from around the globe will arrive to compete in India.

The country has a history of success in organising the Women's World Championships in 2008 and 2018. This year IBA, together with the LOC, is going to multiply this success.

India is the homeland of many legendary boxing stars and is very passionate about our sport, so there is no doubt that the flagship IBA competition will be conducted at the highest level. This will be a perfect opportunity to inspire more and more women to take up the sport and popularise it around the world.

As always, the well-being of athletes is an absolute priority for us, so I am happy to confirm a significant prize money fund for the medallists. I invite all boxing fans to come to India to join this festival of the sport globally, and I wish all the athletes the best of luck in their new victories!

Let's make this event an unforgettable highlight for all of us!

Sincerely yours,

Umar Kremlev

President of the International Boxing
Association (IBA)

AJAY SINGH

President of the Boxing Federation of India (BFI)

Dear Boxing Family,

The popularity of boxing has been on a rise throughout the world. And it is no different in India. With another global boxing event around the corner – the IBA World Women's Boxing Championships 2023 – lovers of the sport are up for yet another treat. Boxing Federation of India (BFI), in association with the International Boxing Association (IBA), are geared up to make this event not just the talk of the town, but a global success.

Having hosted two such prestigious boxing events, a third is a matter of great pride for us. Having said that, I, on behalf of the Boxing Federation of India, take the pleasure of welcoming all National Boxing Federations and their esteemed Members, Technical Officials and Players to this prestigious event to be held in New Delhi, India from March 14 to 26, 2023.

What better a place to host the championships than the capital city of India – a city that is as futuristic, as it is historic! While the sights and smells of the city enthrall your senses, we promise to host a championship that matches its energy, vitality and grandeur. And what better time than March – a month marked by clean air, beautiful weather and picturesque sights all across the country.

India is world-renowned for its hospitality and besides all IBA safety protocols, we promise to embody the spirit of 'Atithi Devo Bhava' (Guest is God) towards every individual who becomes a part of this prestigious event.

The grandeur of the event will be unmatched, as we take the event to the world by broadcasting it live on television and streaming it online for the convenience of our fraternity, as well as boxing fans from across the world.

With your support and presence, I am confident that India will showcase the highest-ever representation of Elite Women Boxers from across all categories of the sport. And so, I sincerely hope that you will accept this invitation, and allow us to organise one of the finest World Women's Boxing Championships ever.
