1.2 In this Constitution, unless otherwise specified:

- (a) references to articles are references to articles in this Constitution;
- (b) a reference to a “person” shall be construed so as to include any individual, firm, company, corporation, body corporate, government, state, or agency of a state, local or municipal authority or government body or any joint venture, association, federation, confederation or partnership (whether or not having separate legal personality);

- (c) a reference to any of the regulations, or to any provision or provisions in a regulation, shall be construed, unless the context otherwise requires, as including a reference to any amendment or replacement made to the same from time to time.

- 1.3 All headings and titles in this Constitution have been inserted for ease of reference only and may not be considered as an aid to its interpretation.

2. LEGAL STATUS AND HEAD OFFICE

- 2.1 The International Boxing Association (IBA) is a non-governmental not-for-profit association incorporated in Switzerland in accordance with art. 60 ff. of the Swiss Civil Code, and subject to the laws of Switzerland.
- 2.2 The Head Office of IBA is located in Lausanne, Switzerland or in such other location as may be determined by the Congress.

3. MISSION

- 3.1 The mission of IBA is to promote, support and govern the sport of boxing worldwide in accordance with the requirements and spirit of the Olympic Charter.
- 3.2 IBA shall fulfil its mission notably by achieving the following objectives:
 - (A) to promote the sport and the spirit of boxing in all its forms, in the light of its educational, cultural and sports values and to encourage the development of boxing throughout the world;
 - (B) to promote boxing globally as a healthy, educational and fitness activity for men and women, and to foster the safety of Boxers and their welfare at all levels, particularly by promoting and controlling good sporting and ethical practices collectively, and to enhance these qualities through respective youth and development programs;
 - (C) to promote the highest standards possible, with respect to the organization, regarding judging, refereeing, coaching, training, education, medical and anti-doping controls in the sport of boxing;

- (D) to organise and conduct IBA Competitions globally;
- (E) to regulate the sport of boxing worldwide through those clear and ratified Regulations;
- (F) to encourage and support the development, organization and delivery of boxing worldwide through its Confederations and National Federations, and to ensure that the rules and regulations of the Confederations and of National Federations comply with the provisions of this Constitution and with the Regulations applicable to them;
- (G) to promote understanding and cooperation between Confederations and National Federations, to give them support, to strengthen their authority and prestige and to ensure unity among IBA, the Confederations and the National Federations;
- (H) to promote and further the ideals of the Olympic movement as expressed in the Olympic Charter;
- (I) to preserve the right of every individual to participate in boxing as a sport without unlawful discrimination of any kind undertaken in the spirit of friendship, solidarity and fair play;
- (J) to promote the involvement of women in the sport of boxing and enhance women's boxing programs;
- (K) protect the integrity of IBA by developing and enforcing standards of conduct and with good ethical behaviour and implementing those attributes relevant to clear governance;
- (L) to combat doping and integrity issues that might damage the sport and reputation of boxing applying and enforcing the World Anti-Doping Code including implementing the rules, programmes, systems and disciplinary measures; and
- (M) to cooperate with other sports organizations and authorities to promote the interests of sports generally, and boxing in particular, throughout the world.

4. NON-DISCRIMINATION

- 4.1 Discrimination of any kind against a country, private person or group of people on account of race; skin colour; ethnicity, national or social origin; gender; disability; language; religion; political opinion or any other opinion; wealth; birth or any other status; sexual orientation or any other reason is strictly prohibited.

5. POWERS

- 5.1 Confederations, National Federations, Officials, Competition Officials, Boxers, coaches and all other persons and organizations subject to this Constitution must comply with its provisions and with all Regulations applicable to them.
- 5.2 The constitutions or statutes of all Confederations, of all National Federations and of all associations which are members of, or affiliated with, any National Federation must expressly recognize the obligations mandated by article 5.1.
- 5.3 Each Confederation shall take all steps reasonably open to it to ensure that all of the National Federations which are members of it comply with the obligations on them mandated by articles 5.1 and 5.2.
- 5.4 Each National Federation shall take all steps reasonably open to it to ensure that:
- (a) all associations which are members of, or affiliated with, that National Federation;
 - (b) all persons elected to office in that National Federation;
 - (c) all persons appointed to any position in that National Federation;
 - (d) all persons employed by that National Federation;
 - (e) all persons occupying a position in that National Federation similar to that of any Competition Official; and
 - (f) all Boxers and coaches registered by that National Federation and by all associations which are members of, or affiliated with, that National Federation;
 - (g) comply with the obligations applicable to them which are mandated by articles 5.1 and 5.2.
- 5.5 A National Federation may not become a member of, or in any way affiliated with, any other international or national boxing organization save as provided for in this Constitution or otherwise with the express written permission of the Board.

6. OFFICIAL LANGUAGES

- 6.1 Arabic, English, French, Russian and Spanish are the official languages of the Congress.
- 6.2 Save as provided in article 6.1, or as the Board may otherwise resolve, English is the official working language at the IBA Head Office, at all meetings of all bodies created by, or in accordance with, this Constitution; and for all Regulations, and all of IBA's minutes, correspondence, announcements, and decisions. National Federations are responsible for translations from English into the languages of their countries.
- 6.3 IBA will pursue to translate the Constitution and the Regulations to the official languages of the Congress, specified in article 6.1 above. For the avoidance of doubt, any dispute with respect to the interpretation of this Constitution or of the Regulations must be determined by reference to the English language version of such document.

7. MEMBERSHIP

- 7.1 A boxing association, which is, or is capable of becoming, responsible for governing the sport of boxing within its country may apply to become a National Federation.
- 7.2 There may only be 1 (one) recognized National Federation from any 1 (one) country.
- 7.3 A boxing association in a Territory which has not yet gained independence may also apply to become a National Federation. The Board will take a decision whether to admit application from such Territory based on several factors, including the historically established autonomy of boxing within the Territory from the National Federation of the country on which it is dependent, existing precedents of boxers competing for the Territory rather than for the country on which it is dependent, the autonomy of sports governance within the Territory, etc. This article shall not affect the status of existing National Federations.

8. ADMISSION AS A MEMBER

- 8.1 Subject to satisfying the requirements of articles 7.1 and 7.2, a boxing association may apply to IBA to be admitted as a National Federation.
- 8.2 An application by a boxing association to be admitted as a National Federation must be sent by post or email to the IBA Head Office and must include or be accompanied by such documents and particulars as the Board may from time to time determine and according to the requirements of the IBA Membership Policy.

9. PROVISIONAL MEMBERSHIP

- 9.1 Following receipt by IBA of an application by a boxing association to be admitted as a National Federation, the Board may admit that entity as a Provisional Member of IBA, provided that it satisfies the requirements contained in articles 7.1, 7.2 and 8.2.
- 9.2 Provisional Members of IBA shall have the right to:
- (a) attend meetings of the Congress but not to vote during such meetings; and
 - (b) participate in IBA Competitions and in other boxing competitions with National Federations subject to the provisions of this Constitution and to any applicable regulations which may be made from time to time by the Board; and
 - (c) shall have such other rights as may be determined from time to time by the Board.
- 9.3 Following the decision of the Board to admit a boxing association as a Provisional Member of IBA, the Provisional Member's application to be admitted as a National Federation shall be referred for determination to the meeting of the Ordinary Congress following the Board's decision or Extraordinary Congress, whichever comes first.
- 9.4 Upon considering such application, the Congress may:
- (a) admit the Provisional Member as a National Federation;
 - (b) defer consideration of the application to a subsequent meeting of the Congress upon such terms, if any, as the Congress may deem appropriate;
 - (c) specify a condition or conditions whereby the satisfaction of which will result in the Provisional Member thereupon becoming a National Federation without further recourse to the Congress; and delegate to the Board the power to determine whether the specified condition or conditions has or have been satisfied; or
 - (d) reject the application.

10. RIGHTS OF NATIONAL FEDERATIONS

10.1 Eligible National Federations shall have the right to:

- (a) Appoint 1 (one) Voting Delegate to participate in debates and to vote during meetings of the Congress;
- (b) Appoint up to 2 (two) Non-Voting Delegates to attend during meetings of the Congress without being entitled to vote or speak on behalf of a National Federation;
- (c) submit proposals for inclusion in the Ordinary Congress Agendas in accordance with article 20.1;
- (d) nominate eligible candidates for election at meetings of the Congress;
- (e) submit nominations for members of IBA Committees in accordance with the regulations approved by the Board;
- (f) participate and enter Boxers in IBA Competitions and in other boxing competitions with other National Federations subject to the provisions of this Constitution and to any applicable Regulations;
- (g) be regularly informed of IBA activities, notably by receiving reports, circulars, official information, as necessary to exercise their right as National Federations, or as further specified in this Constitution and the Regulations; and
- (h) such other rights as set out in this Constitution and the Regulations and as may be determined from time to time by the Board.

11. OBLIGATIONS OF NATIONAL FEDERATIONS

11.1 Each National Federation is obliged to:

- (a) comply with the requirements of this Constitution and of the Regulations applicable to it, it shall include these obligations in their statutes and lay down the necessary implementing provisions;
- (b) administer, promote and develop boxing in the country of the National Federation in accordance with the mission of IBA;
- (c) comply with decisions issued or to be issued by IBA and the BIIU at any time, as well as the awards of CAS, it shall include these obligations in their statutes and shall ensure that said decisions and awards are legally binding and enforced amongst its members;

- (d) abstain from any conduct which is, or may reasonably be seen to be, detrimental or unbecoming to IBA or to the interests of IBA;
- (e) submit to the Board a copy of its constitution (together with an English translation of the same if such constitution is written in a language other than English) whenever that constitution is amended or replaced;
- (f) democratically elect or appoint its officers and executive body in accordance with its constitution and generally recognized democratic and good governance principles;
- (g) supply information in a timely manner as may be specified in the Regulations or as otherwise requested in writing;
- (h) continue to meet all the requirements for membership as per articles 7 and 8;
- (i) manage its affairs independently and ensure that its own affairs are not unduly influenced by any third party or third parties;
- (j) avoid participation in any international boxing organization or association other than IBA or a Confederation, unless otherwise expressly permitted by the Board. In response to the— existing challenges in the international sport IBA current status of IBA and acknowledging the increasing pressures from International Olympic Committee and National Olympic Committees on National Federations to affiliate with alternative international boxing organizations, the Board, in accordance with article 3.2(i) on non-discriminatory participation in sport, may grant permissions for dual membership on a conditional basis. These permissions will be evaluated and granted based on the unique conjuncture and circumstances present at each time, with the Board considering factors such as safeguarding athletes' rights to compete internationally, upholding boxing integrity, and fostering IBA's values in alignment with global sports governance. Decisions to permit dual membership will be periodically reviewed and updated by the Board, with clear communication provided to National Federations on the specific circumstances under which dual affiliation may be accepted. Any permission granted shall be temporary, subject to review based on evolving global and organizational dynamics, and contingent on continued adherence to IBA's principles and regulations;

- (k) implement and apply a regulatory diversity framework providing that any behaviour of racism and any other forms of discrimination is strictly sanctioned;
- (l) pay to IBA all monies owing to IBA;
- (m) provide IBA with up-to-date contact information for their National Federation. This information includes the emails of the president, secretary general and generic email as well as the physical address. These details will be maintained on the IBA website and will be considered binding for all official communications. The National Federation should promptly update this information as needed by informing the IBA Head Office;
- (n) submit a detailed report annually to IBA in accordance with the IBA Membership Policy; and
- (o) pay to the Confederation of which it is a member all funds owing to that Confederation.

11.2 In the event of any inconsistency between the Constitution, Rules and Regulations of a National Federation and the Constitution, Rules and Regulations of IBA, then to the extent of that inconsistency, the Constitution, Rules and Regulations of IBA will prevail.

12. CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

12.1 A National Federation will cease to be a member of IBA if:

- (a) it resigns its membership of IBA;
- (b) its membership of IBA is terminated by a resolution of the Congress in accordance with this Constitution; or
- (c) it is wound up or dissolved as a boxing association in accordance with its national laws.

12.2 A National Federation may resign its membership of IBA by forwarding by post or email an official letter of resignation, signed by an authorised officer of the National Federation with respective logo and specific representation to the IBA Head Office.

12.3 A National Federation's resignation from its membership of IBA:

(a) will take effect as from 1 January following receipt by the IBA Head Office of the National Federation's letter of resignation; but

(b) will not operate to extinguish or in any way bar any legal obligation the National Federation may have to pay any monies payable to IBA or to the Confederation of which it is a member.

12.4 However, if a National Federation submits a resignation effective the following 1 January, and another boxing association from the same country has applied for membership to be admitted as a National Federation with all documentation approved by the IBA Head Office, the Board of Directors is authorized to:

(a) Immediately terminate the membership of the resigning National Federation;

(b) Grant provisional membership to the new applying National Federation, subject to confirmation by the Congress in the next regular or extraordinary session.

13. SUSPENSION FROM MEMBERSHIP

13.1 The Board may suspend any National Federation from membership of IBA if the National Federation concerned:

(a) no longer satisfies the requirements for membership of IBA contained in articles 7.1 and 7.2; or

(b) is in serious breach of a provision or provisions in this Constitution or in the Regulations, and/or acts in a manner which is contrary to the mission of IBA and/or the laws of its Country provided it is granted the right to be heard pursuant to the Regulations.

13.2 Alternatively, instead of suspension, the Board shall be entitled to establish Normalisation Committee for the National Federation in the event 1 (one) or more of the circumstances specified in article 13.1 arise. The primary objective of the Normalisation Committee is to address existing issues within the National Federation and to assist in resolving any crisis situation. The composition of the Normalisation Committee shall include at least 1 (one) Director, 1 (one) director of the relevant Confederation and 1 (one) boxing stakeholder from the concerned country or territory.

Any decision taken by the Normalisation Committee shall be final and mandatory for the National Federation, its governing bodies, officials and members. Failure to respect this decision shall have the same implications and consequences as a failure to respect an IBA decision. The Board will be responsible for establishing the Regulations governing the Normalisation Committee.

- 13.3 Before issuing any decision of suspension, the Board shall provide notice to the National Federation of the opening of a proceeding against it, grant the National Federation concerned the right to be acquainted with the charges against it and to exercise its right to be heard, as well as any further rights which may be provided for in the Regulations.
- 13.4 Following the suspension of a National Federation consistent with article 13.1, such suspension shall be referred to the meeting of the Congress following that suspension for consideration of the Congress at that meeting.
- 13.5 The rights accorded to a National Federation by article 10.1 shall lapse during any period in which the National Federation stands suspended by a decision of the Board unless the Board determines otherwise. Notwithstanding the above, the Board shall undertake any measures it may deem fit in order to ensure that Boxers and Coaches affiliated to any suspended National Federation are not deprived of their right to take part in Competitions under their national flag and anthem but without any symbols of the suspended National Federation, under conditions to be fixed by the Board.
- 13.6 At any time prior to the consideration of the Congress of the Board's decision to suspend a National Federation, the Board may revoke that suspension on such terms, if any, as the Board may deem appropriate.
- 13.7 In its consideration of the suspension of a National Federation, the Congress may:
 - (a) revoke the suspension;
 - (b) extend the suspension:
 - (i) for such period and/or upon such terms as the Congress may deem appropriate; or
 - (ii) for further consideration by the next meeting of the Congress; or
 - (c) terminate the National Federation's membership of IBA upon the vote of the Voting Delegates from at least 2/3 (two thirds) of the National Federations in attendance at the meeting of the Congress; provided in any event that the National Federation is granted the right to be heard by the Congress.

- 13.8 The suspension (including provisional suspension) of, or imposition of any other sanctions against, any National Federation imposed by the Board or Congress, shall be promptly notified appropriately by the IBA Secretary General & CEO to all National Federations and, in particular, to the National Federation affected.

14. CONTINENTAL CONFEDERATIONS

- 14.1 The following 5 (five) Confederations are recognized by IBA:

- (a) the AFBC;
- (b) the AMBC;
- (c) the ASBC;
- (d) the EUBC; and
- (e) the OCBC.

In case of serious breach by the Confederation of a provision or provisions in this Constitution, in the Regulations, in the Continental Constitution or in the Continental Regulations, the Board shall be entitled to temporary suspend the recognition of the Confederation concerned. In case of suspension all rights and obligations of the Confederation concerned shall be suspended for entire period of such suspension. Following the suspension of a Confederation's recognition such suspension shall be referred to the meeting of the Congress following that suspension for consideration of the Congress at that meeting. The Congress shall decide to revoke the suspension, extend the suspension, or withdraw a recognition of the Confederation concerned. The Board shall establish the Regulations on suspension and withdrawal of recognition for Continental Confederations.

- 14.2 Each Confederation shall have the following functions and rights:

- (a) to promote the sport of boxing throughout the Confederation and in line with the IBA Mission at the time;
- (b) to organise Confederation Championships, other boxing competitions and training courses for coaches, referees and judges, technical officials, ring doctors, administrators, managers and promoters in line with respective IBA Sport and Development programs;

- (c) to have a well-defined geographical jurisdiction in which is granted authority by IBA to make decisions in compliance with its Constitution and Regulations;
- (d) to be properly constituted as a separate legal entity in accordance with the law applicable to such specific Country where it is constituted;
- (e) to have its resident democratically elected and directly appointed as member of the Board as per article 25.1 (b) once it has passed the eligibility check by the Independent Vetting Firm of article 27;
- (f) submit nominations for members of IBA Committees;
- (g) such other functions, rights and duties as the Board may determine from time to time; and
- (h) to receive financial support from IBA as deemed appropriate; all submissions should be well defined, specific, detailed, and open to full audit and assurance requirements. Misappropriation of funds will be investigated as required.

14.3 The President and Secretary General & CEO shall be promptly notified of, and have the right to participate in, all congresses and board of directors' meetings of each Confederation; both shall be accompanied by IBA legal representation as appropriate and as required.

14.4 In the event of any inconsistency between the constitution, rules and regulations of a Confederation and the Constitution, Rules and Regulations of IBA, then to the extent of that inconsistency, the Constitution, Rules and Regulations of IBA will prevail.

14.5 The Board shall be entitled to establish Normalisation Committee for the Confederation in case of serious breach of a provision or provisions in this Constitution, in the Regulations, in the Continental Constitution or in the Continental Regulations. Additionally, this action may be taken if the Confederation's conduct contradicts the IBA's mission and/or the laws of its country of registration. The primary role of the Normalisation Committee shall be to address and eliminate existing problems in the Confederation and to assist in resolving any crisis situations. The Normalisation Committee shall include at least 2 (two) Directors, 1 (one) Vice President, and 2 (two) boxing stakeholders from the country or territory affiliated to the concerned Confederation. Any decision made by the Normalisation Committee shall be final and mandatory for the Confederation, its governing bodies, officials and affiliated National Federations. Failure to respect this decision shall have the same implications and consequences as a failing to respect an IBA decision. The Regulations governing the Normalisation Committee, established in accordance with article 13.2 shall also apply to the Normalisation Committee of the Confederation.

14.6 Each Confederation is obliged to:

- (a) comply with the requirements of this Constitution and of the Regulations applicable to it, it shall adapt and include these obligations in their constitutions and lay down the necessary implementing provisions;
- (b) to make publicly available a version of its own constitution and regulations in the English language, as recognised by IBA;
- (c) comply with decisions issued by IBA and the BIIU as well as the awards of CAS, it shall include these obligations in their constitutions and shall ensure that said decisions and awards are legally binding and enforced amongst its members; zero tolerance of abuse will be accepted in this area of expertise;
- (d) abstain from any conduct which is, or may reasonably be seen to be, detrimental to IBA's mission, values, or to the wider interests of IBA. All Confederation activities, including strategic decisions and external affiliations, must remain consistent with IBA policies and directives;
- (e) democratically elect or appoint its officers and executive body in accordance with its constitution;
- (f) manage its affairs independently and ensure that its own affairs are not unduly influenced by any third parties;
- (g) affiliate with IBA and shall not join, participate in, or recognize avoid participation in any other international boxing organization or association other than IBA, unless otherwise expressly permitted by the Board. Any Confederation found to be in breach of this provision may be subject to disciplinary actions as determined by the Board, up to and including suspension of the recognition;
- (h) implement and apply a regulatory framework providing that any behaviour of racism and any other forms of discrimination is strictly unacceptable and will be open to the appropriate sanctions;

- (i) have and maintain a central office in its geographical area to administer the affairs of the Confederation;

and

- (j) pay to IBA all monies owing to IBA.

14.7 Each Confederation is further obliged to submit to the Board:

- (a) a copy of its constitution (together with an English translation of the same if such constitution is written in a language other than English) whenever that constitution is amended or replaced. Any amendment to a Confederation's constitution shall require preliminary-the approval of the IBA Board to verify compliance with the IBA's standards; and
- (b) its annual financial statements, activity reports, budgets and business plans, and to include any administration applicable to the IBA Financial Support Programme of allocated Prize Money; and
- (c) any further information as may be specified in the Regulations or as otherwise requested in writing.

15. GOVERNANCE OF IBA

15.1 The hierarchy of governance of IBA are:

- (a) the Congress; and
- (b) the Board.

16. CONGRESS — ORGANIZATION

16.1 The Congress is an assembly of all Eligible National Federations and serves as the supreme governing body of IBA.

16.2 A National Federation shall be deemed to be an Eligible National Federation if the National Federation:

- (a) does not stand suspended in accordance with either article 13.1 or article 13.4 on the date of the Congress;

- (b) does not owe any other monies/funds to IBA on the date of the Congress. This includes any monetary debt decided by any competent sporting body and/or ordinary tribunal;
 - (c) has not been declared ineligible by the BIIU Compliance Unit in accordance with article 16.3; and
 - (d) has had a Boxer or Boxers compete during the previous 4 (four) years in at least 1 (one) IBA owned and/or sanctioned competitions, or such other boxing competition as the Board may have determined by Regulations.
- 16.3 Each Confederation may inform IBA that a National Federation owes monies to that Confederation and is in breach of article 11.1(i). Upon receipt of such notice, the Secretary General & CEO shall immediately refer the matter to the BIIU Compliance Unit to decide whether the concerned National Federation shall be declared as not being an Eligible National Federation for a failure to pay monies due to its Confederation.
- 16.4 Each Voting Delegate and Non-Voting Delegate to the Congress must have been validly appointed by that Eligible National Federation in accordance with the constitution, bylaws or regulations of that National Federation.
- 16.5 A Voting Delegate cannot represent more than 1 (one) National Federation at a meeting of the Congress.
- 16.6 IBA shall arrange and cover, to the extent possible, the reasonable costs for economy class air travel, accommodation and meals only for the Voting Delegate of each National Federation attending an Ordinary or Extraordinary Congress meeting. National Federations shall arrange and cover the costs of the Non-Voting Delegates should they wish to attend.
- 16.7 No member of the Board, IBA Head Office, BIIU and the Independent Vetting Firm may be a Delegate.

17. CONGRESS — POWERS

- 17.1 The Congress has the power and, when required by this Constitution, the duty to:
- (a) determine whether or not a Provisional Member of IBA shall be admitted as a National Federation;
 - (b) determine whether or not to revoke or extend the suspension of a suspended

National Federation, or to terminate that National Federation's membership of IBA;

- (c) elect the President and Directors of the Board and to conduct such elections as it is required to conduct in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution;
- (d) on a motion of no confidence adopted by the Voting Delegates from at least 2/3 (two thirds) of all Eligible National Federations in attendance at a meeting of the Congress, remove the President or any other elected Director from office as a member of the Board;
- (e) determine whether or not to approve the minutes of the previous meeting of the Congress;
- (f) determine whether or not to approve IBA's audited financial report;
- (g) determine whether or not the Board has discharged its financial obligations;
- (h) approve or not approve other reports submitted to it by the Board;
- (i) determine whether or not to move the location of the IBA Head Office;
- (j) confer Distinguished Service Awards;
- (k) define the geographic area over which a Confederation shall extend for the purpose of the membership of that Confederation;
- (l) on exceptional circumstances to decide the participation in the Competitions of the Boxers affiliated to a National Federation in neutral status; to decide not to invite Boxers affiliated to a National Federation to the Competitions, or to decide on restrictions to hold the Competitions within the territory of any National Federation. For reasons of expeditiousness, the Board may decide these matters on a provisional basis and then submitted to Extraordinary Congress or Ordinary Congress (whatever comes first) in order to issue the resolution on time;
- (m) amend or replace this Constitution with the vote from at least 2/3 (two thirds) of all Eligible National Federations in attendance at a meeting of the Congress; and
- (n) dissolve IBA with the vote from at least 3/4 (three quarters) of all Eligible National Federations in attendance at a meeting of the Congress as per article 50.

17.2 Save as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the Board shall make regulations governing the manner in which meetings of the Congress are conducted; including (but not necessarily limited to) making regulations regarding:

- (a) the date and place of such meetings;
- (b) the validation of entitlements of Voting Delegates to vote at such meetings;
- (c) the procedures for voting, by Voting Delegates at such meetings;
- (d) the circumstances in which delegates and others may speak at such meetings; and
- (e) the minutes of such meetings.

18. ORDINARY CONGRESS

- 18.1 A meeting of the Congress may be either an Ordinary Congress meeting or an Extraordinary Congress meeting.
- 18.2 An Ordinary Congress meeting shall be convened by the Board every year during the last quarter of each calendar year. Once every 4 (four) years, the Ordinary Congress meeting shall be an Election Congress Meeting.
- 18.3 The Ordinary Congress may take place with the physical presence of Delegates and/or by means of telecommunications, by audio-visual link, as decided by the Board.
- 18.4 The Board shall give not less than 4 (four) months written notice of each Ordinary Congress meeting to all National Federations. Such notice shall specify:
- (a) the date of such meeting and its form (in person, hybrid or online by audio-visual link), as well as the place of the meeting in case it takes place in person or online by audio-visual link;
 - (b) the date by which a National Federation intending to be represented at such meeting must notify the IBA Head Office of the names of its intended Voting Delegate and of any non-voting delegate or delegates;
 - (c) if such meeting is an Election Congress Meeting:
 - (i) those offices which are to be filled by election at the meeting; and
 - (ii) the date by which each nomination of a candidate to fill any such office must be notified to the IBA Head Office; and
 - (d) the date by which any proposed motion or other proposed item of business must be notified to the IBA Head Office (as per article 20.1).
- 18.5 In circumstances unforeseen by the Board at the time it originally convened either an Ordinary or an Extraordinary Congress meeting, the Board may change the date and/or the place of such meeting accordingly.

- 18.6 If the date and/or the place of a Congress meeting is changed in accordance with article 18.5, then the Board shall immediately notify all National Federations in writing, suffice by email, of the change or changes.

19. EXTRAORDINARY CONGRESS

- 19.1 An Extraordinary Congress meeting:

- (a) may be convened by the Board of its own motion at any time if the Board considers that such an Extraordinary Congress meeting is necessary or desirable; and
- (b) must be convened by the Board within a period of 3 (three) months after at least 1/3 (one third) of all National Federations not owing any monies to IBA request such an Extraordinary Congress meeting.

- 19.2 A request for an Extraordinary Congress meeting made by National Federations in accordance with article 19.1(b) must:

- (a) specify the purpose of the proposed Extraordinary Congress meeting, and further specify any motion or motions proposed to be moved at such meeting;
- (b) be forwarded by post or email to the IBA Head Office.

- 19.3 The Board shall give not less than 2 (two) months written notice of each Extraordinary Congress meeting to all National Federations. Such notice shall specify:

- (a) the date of such meeting and its form (in person, hybrid or online by audio-visual link), as well as the place of the meeting in case it takes place in person or online by audio-visual link;
- (b) the date by which a National Federation intending to be represented at such meeting must notify the IBA Head Office of the names of its intended Voting Delegate and of any non-voting delegate or delegates.

20. AGENDA FOR CONGRESS

- 20.1 2 (two) months prior to the date fixed for an Ordinary Congress meeting at the latest, each Eligible National Federation may forward to the IBA Head Office, by post or email, notice of an item or items of business including any motion or motions to be included in such Agenda for that Congress meeting. Each such notice of an item of business must be accompanied by an explanation of the item and the reason or reasons why the National Federation concerned has sought to have it included in such Agenda.

- 20.2 Each notice forwarded by a National Federation to the IBA Head Office in accordance with article 20.1 shall be included in the Agenda for the Congress meeting.
- 20.3 Subject to the requirements of articles 20.1 and 20.2, the Agenda for an Ordinary Congress meeting shall be determined by the Board.
- 20.4 The Agenda for an Extraordinary Congress meeting convened by the Board of its own motion shall be determined by the Board.
- 20.5 The Agenda for an Extraordinary Congress meeting convened in accordance with articles 19.1(a) or 19.1(b) shall include the item or items of business resulting in the convening of the Extraordinary Congress meeting.
- 20.6 Subject to the requirements of article 20.5, the Board may include such other item or items of business as it may consider appropriate on the Agenda for an Extraordinary Congress meeting convened in accordance with article 19.1(b).
- 20.7 1 (one) month prior to the date fixed for the commencement of a Congress meeting at the latest, the IBA Head Office shall forward to all Eligible National Federations by post or email:
- (a) the Agenda for that Congress meeting; and
 - (b) all documents reasonably necessary for the proper consideration by the delegates at such Congress meeting of the matters on the Agenda for such meeting.
- 20.8 An item or items of business not included on the Agenda for a Congress meeting may be considered and dealt with at such meeting if the Voting Delegates from at least $\frac{2}{3}$ (two thirds) of the Eligible National Federations in attendance at the meeting vote in favour of the inclusion of such item in the Agenda for such meeting.
- 20.9 No motion to amend this Constitution, hold elections or dissolve IBA shall be considered at a meeting of the Congress unless it appears on the Agenda for that meeting, coupled with all necessary administration in writing.

21. CONGRESS PROCEEDINGS

- 21.1 Save as provided by articles 21.2 and 21.3:

- (a) the President shall preside over meetings of the Congress.
 - (b) In the event that the President is unable or unwilling to preside over a meeting of the Congress, then the First Vice President shall preside over such meeting.
 - (c) In the event that neither the President nor the First Vice President is able or willing to preside over a meeting of the Congress, then the Chairperson shall be appointed by the BIIU Nomination Unit as soon as it becomes aware of the non-participation of the two persons concerned.
- 21.2 The Secretary General & CEO shall assist the chairperson presiding over meeting of the Congress.
- 21.3 The proceedings at Congress shall be conducted in accordance with the IBA Regulations on Congress and Elections established by the Board.
- 21.4 During each Election Congress Meeting, the BIIU Nomination Unit shall appoint the chairperson to preside over the conduct of all elections for positions on the Board held at such Election Congress Meeting.
- 21.5 Besides Voting and Non-Voting Delegates at the Congress meeting may also be present the Directors, the Secretary General & CEO, all staff involved in the organization of the Congress meeting, Legal Counsel, Head of Legal/In-House Lawyer or equivalent, Auditor, Chairperson of the relevant IBA Committees, as well as the guests invited by the IBA President.
- 21.6 The above attendees can be invited by the Chairperson of the Congress to speak at Congress meetings.

22. VOTING

- 22.1 Each National Federation represented at a Congress by a Voting Delegate has 1 (one) vote, which must only be cast by that National Federation's Voting Delegate.
- 22.2 A Delegate to the Congress cannot transfer to any other person his/her right to participate at a meeting of the Congress and/or his/her right to vote at such meeting.

23. QUORUM

- 23.1 A quorum for meetings of the Congress shall be constituted by the attendance at such meetings of the Voting Delegates from at least 1/2+1 (half plus one) of all Eligible National Federations.

- 23.2 If the quorum referred to in article 23.1 is not attained at a meeting of the Congress, then the Board may convene a further meeting of the Congress with the same Agenda within 3 (three) months at such location as the Board may determine. Such a meeting of the Congress shall be deemed to have been validly convened notwithstanding that the quorum referred to in article 23.1 has not been attained.

24. VOTING ON DECISIONS

- 24.1 Save as provided in article 24.2 and unless specifically stated otherwise in this Constitution, a matter put to a vote at a meeting of the Congress shall be deemed to have been carried or adopted if the Voting Delegates from not less than $\frac{1}{2} + 1$ (half plus one) of the Eligible National Federations in attendance at the meeting vote in favour of it.
- 24.2 A vote to amend or replace this Constitution shall only be deemed to have been carried at a meeting of the Congress if the Voting Delegates from at least $\frac{2}{3}$ (two thirds) of the Eligible National Federations in attendance at the meeting vote in favour of the amendment or replacement.
- 24.3 A decision adopted at a meeting of the Congress shall take effect from the time of its adoption unless such meeting:
- (a) fixes another time or date at which it is to take effect; or
 - (b) instructs the Board to fix, in the exercise of the Board's discretion, another time or date at which it is to take effect, and the Board so fixes that other time or date.

25. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- 25.1 The Board of Directors of IBA shall consist of the following 18 (eighteen) Directors:
- (a) the President, who shall be elected at each Election Congress Meeting by at least $\frac{1}{2} + 1$ (one half plus 1) from the Voting Delegates from all of the Eligible National Federations in attendance at the meeting;
 - (b) the Presidents of the AFBC, the AMBC, the ASBC, the EUBC and the OCBC (the “Continental Presidents”), each elected from time to time in accordance with the constitution of his or her Confederation, who shall be the Directors ex officio;

- (c) the Chair of the Athletes' Committee and 1 (one) other member of the Athletes' Committee elected by the members of the Athletes' Committee, who shall be of each gender; and
- (d) 10 (ten) Directors, who shall be elected at each Election Congress Meeting by at least $\frac{1}{2} + 1$ (one half plus 1) from the Voting Delegates from all the Eligible National Federations in attendance as such meeting amongst the candidates who have successfully passed the independent selection process as described below (the "Independent Directors").

25.2 The Secretary General & CEO must be present at each Board meeting and shall be entitled to participate in deliberations without voting right.

26. SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

26.1 The Independent Directors above shall:

- (a) include at least 5 (five) women;
- (b) include at least 1 (one) national of each Continent;
- (c) not include more than 3 (three) Directors having the nationality of the same Continent;
- (d) be further selected as described below.

26.2 The candidates for election as the 10 (ten) Independent Directors shall be selected according to a selection process to be conducted by the BIIU Nomination Unit with the support of the Independent Vetting Firm, to the extent required. The procedure and selection criteria shall be further described in Regulations to be adopted by the Board and approved by the BIIU Nomination Unit, but shall at least include the following:

- (a) A transparent call for candidates shall be issued;
- (b) The BIIU Nomination Unit may propose to National Federations or Continental Confederations candidates suitable for office, who could then be nominated for the elections as per articles 27.1 and 27.2;
- (c) At least 20 (twenty) candidates shall be selected taking into consideration:
 - (i) representation of all continents;
 - (ii) balance between genders;

- (iii) specific skills in boxing and boxing career;
- (iv) professional and sporting experience;
- (v) other qualities of the candidates, such as knowledge in marketing or accounting or finance-related matters, language skills, successes achieved in businesses, sporting career in another sport than boxing, education, experience as official of a sport governing body, etc.; and
- (vi) in case of a candidate running for re-election, his or her performance and achievements as a Director.

27. ELIGIBILITY – VETTING

- 27.1 Each Director serving on the Board shall be from a different National Federation, except for the Directors who are members of the Athletes' Committee and/ or Continental Presidents.
- 27.2 Each candidate for election by the Congress to an office on the Board must be nominated for election to such office by the National Federation of the country of which he or she is a citizen or by the Confederation of the same continent as his country of citizenship. For the avoidance of doubt, National Federations / Confederations may nominate several candidates for an office.
- 27.3 Continental Presidents are nominated in accordance with the constitution of their Confederation; members of the Athlete Committee are nominated in accordance with the Regulations governing the Athletes Committee.
- 27.4 The BIIU Nomination Unit shall be in charge of vetting all Directors (no matter in which capacity they are elected).
- 27.5 The Board shall select an independent recognized firm, approved by the BIIU Nomination Unit, with expertise in conducting research and inquiry in order to conduct a full review of all information, disclosed by candidates, publicly available or otherwise available through researches and inquiries, in order to perform the tasks of vetting and selecting candidates (the “Independent Vetting Firm”). The Independent Vetting Firm shall report to the BIIU Nomination Unit.
- 27.6 To be eligible to stand for election to an office on the Board, a candidate must:
 - (a) be nominated by their National Federation as described above;

- (b) be selected as a candidate in accordance with article 26.2 and the Regulations (for Independent Directors only);
- (c) not have reached the maximum number of terms of office, as further detailed in article 31;
- (d) have successfully passed the integrity check conducted by the BIIU Nomination Unit with the support of the Independent Vetting Firm;
- (e) be in compliance with all requirements of the Constitution and the Regulations that apply to candidates to an office.

27.7 The BIIU Nomination Unit with the support of the Independent Vetting Firm shall conduct an integrity check of all candidates to become a Director to ensure that each candidate:

- (a) meets the high standards of conduct, reputation and integrity required of a Director;
- (b) has been and is in full compliance with the IBA Conflict of Interest Policy and is free of any actual major Conflict of Interest;
- (c) does not hold any position in any international boxing organization other than IBA or a Confederation and/or is not a direct relative to an IBA Official or to a person employed to or engaged by IBA Head Office, which could be prejudicial to his/her position as Director of IBA or could cause a Conflict of Interest.

27.8 The criteria to be used to assess if a candidate meets the criteria listed under article 27.7 above shall include, without limitation, whether the person:

- (a) is or has been convicted of a criminal offence, is or has been sanctioned for a breach of the Constitution, the Regulations, the IOC's Code of Ethics, anti-doping regulations adopted pursuant to the World Anti-Doping Code or any of its national derivatives, or is the subject of a current or pending prosecution or proceedings for the commission of such an offence or breach, provided however that such conviction or sanction is likely to result in adverse findings being made about the person's credibility, integrity, honesty or reputation;
- (b) is or has been a bankrupt or otherwise insolvent under the law of the candidate's place of domicile;
- (c) is barred from conducting business in any country worldwide;

- (d) has his/her credibility, integrity, honesty or reputation undermined or having been brought into disrepute, resulting in the risk that his or her association with IBA, or continued association, has or is likely to affect the reputation or the interests of the sport of boxing or of IBA; or
- (e) is unwilling or unable to deal with any potential or actual Conflict of Interest.

- 27.9 The BIIU Nomination Unit shall determine whether or not each candidate for election to office on the Board satisfies the eligibility criteria contained in articles 27.6, 27.7 and 27.8 and shall provide its determination to the IBA Head Office. Should the BIIU Nomination Unit decide that a candidate for an office as Director does not satisfy the eligibility criteria, such decision may be appealed before the CAS by the concerned candidate. Only the candidate (and not his/her National Federation) has standing to appeal. The appeal shall be lodged within 5 (five) natural days of issuance of the decision and shall be decided by a sole arbitrator to be appointed jointly by IBA and the candidate. In case of an agreement is not found, CAS shall decide. The procedure before CAS shall be expedited for an award (without grounds) to be issued at the latest 15 (fifteen) natural days after the filing date of the appeal. The Statement of Appeal shall be considered the Appeal Brief and the IBA will file its Response within 4 (four) days of receiving the Appeal Brief.
- 27.10 If during the term of office of a Director, a Director no longer satisfies the eligibility criteria contained in articles 27.6, 27.7 and 27.8, the BIIU Nomination Unit and/or the BIIU Compliance Unit, as applicable, may, either on its own motion or upon referral by the Board or the IBA Head Office open a procedure against the concerned Director to decide whether such Director should be declared ineligible, and be removed from office. Such a decision of ineligibility may be appealed before the CAS by the concerned Director in accordance with article 27.9.
- 27.11 All nominations for offices on the Board must be forwarded by post, email or hand delivery to the IBA Head Office and received within the deadline fixed by the Board.
- 27.12 Not less than 20 (twenty) days prior to the date fixed for the commencement of an Election Congress Meeting during which elections are to be held for offices on the Board, the IBA Head Office shall forward by post or email to all Eligible National Federations and publish on the IBA website a list of all of those candidates whom the BIIU Nomination Unit has determined are eligible to stand in the elections and have been validly nominated or selected in accordance with this Constitution.

28. VOTING IN ELECTIONS

- 28.1 All candidates for election to an office on the Board must be present for that election at the Congress during which the election occurs. In case of Congress by video conference, presence means attending the video conference.
- 28.2 The President shall be elected by a system of exhaustive balloting pursuant to which a series of ballots may be conducted, with the candidate receiving the least number of votes in each successive ballot being eliminated from the next ballot, until the successful candidate receives the votes of Voting Delegates from not less than $1/2 + 1$ (half plus one) of all of the Eligible National Federations in attendance at the Congress meeting. However, in any such ballot, if 2 (two) or more candidates jointly receive fewer votes than the candidate receiving the next lowest number of votes, then those 2 (two) or more candidates shall be eliminated from the next ballot. In the event that after the elimination of all other candidates in accordance with this article, 2 (two) or more candidates are tied with an equal number of votes, then a further ballot shall be conducted, with only such tied candidates remaining as candidates in that further ballot. In the event that after that further ballot, 2 (two) or more of the candidates remain tied with an equal number of votes, then the person appointed by the BIIU Nomination Unit to chair the election process shall draw the name of the successful candidate by lot from among those so tied.
- 28.3 1 (one) ballot shall be held at each Election Congress Meeting to elect the 10 (ten) Directors referred to in article 25.1(d). The successful candidates shall be the 10 (ten) candidates who receive the highest number of votes of Voting Delegates from the Eligible National Federations in attendance at such meeting. In the event that after such a ballot, 2 (two) or more candidates are tied with an equal number of votes, then a further ballot shall be conducted, with only such tied candidates remaining as candidates in that further ballot. In the event that after that further ballot, 2 (two) or more of the candidates remain tied with an equal number of votes, then the person appointed by the BIIU Nomination Unit to chair the election process shall draw the name of the successful candidate by lot from among those so tied. The Regulations shall further detail how the election of the 10 (ten) Independent Directors shall occur in order to allow an appropriate representation of continents and genders.
- 28.4 Where there is only 1 (one) candidate for a position on the Board, then that candidate shall be deemed to be unanimously elected by acclamation at the Congress meeting concerned.

- 28.5 Save as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the Board shall make such regulations for the conduct of elections to offices on the Board it may consider appropriate.

29. MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

- 29.1 The Board shall meet whenever necessary but, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, must meet at least 6 (six) times per year.
- 29.2 Board meetings may be conducted:
- (a) in person,
 - (b) hybrid, or
 - (c) online by means of telecommunications. A telecommunications meeting may be held by telephone or by audio-visual link.
- 29.3 Save as provided by articles 28.4 and 28.5, the President shall preside over meetings of the Board. In the event that the President is unavailable or unwilling to chair a meeting, then the First Vice President shall preside over it. In the event that neither the President nor the First Vice President is available or willing, then those other Directors attending the meeting shall elect 1 (one) of their number to preside over the meeting.
- 29.4 In the event that a motion put to a Board meeting in any way affects the position of the President and/or the First Vice President, then neither shall preside over the debate and the vote on the motion. In such circumstances, those other Directors attending the meeting shall elect 1 (one) of their number to preside over the meeting.
- 29.5 A quorum for a meeting of the Board shall be constituted by the attendance at such meeting of at least $\frac{1}{2} + 1$ (half plus one) of the Directors. A Director cannot transfer his or her right to participate and/or to vote at a meeting of the Board to any other person.
- 29.6 A meeting of the Board:
- (a) may be convened by the President of his or her own motion if he or she considers that such a meeting is necessary or desirable; and
 - (b) must be convened by the President within a period of 4 (four) weeks after at least $\frac{1}{3} + 1$ (one third plus one) of the remaining Directors request such a meeting.

- 29.7 All Directors shall be entitled to vote on all matters put to a vote at meetings of the Board; save only that any Director with a conflict of interest regarding such matter shall not be entitled to vote on the same.
- 29.8 Save as provided by article 29.9, the deliberations of Directors at Board meetings or exchange of emails among Directors in case a vote by email takes place shall be and remain confidential.
- 29.9 Directors may, by a majority vote i.e. $\frac{1}{2} + 1$ (half plus one) of those present at any Board meeting take any decision within their power (such voting can be made in written or raising hands), direct that:
- (a) the minutes of the meeting, or a part or parts thereof;
 - (b) a report of the deliberations of the Board at such meeting; and/or
 - (c) a note of any decision or decisions taken by the Board at such meeting;
- be circulated to National Federations or otherwise made public.
- 29.10 At the discretion of the President, the Board may be invited to reach a decision on any matter by an email vote. The President may delegate this matter to the First Vice President and/or the Secretary General & CEO.
- 29.11 Save as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the Board may make such regulations as it deems necessary or appropriate governing when, where and the manner in which meetings of the Board are to be conducted.

30. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD

- 30.1 Save as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the executive power to govern IBA is vested in the Board. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Board has both the power and, where so required by this Constitution, the duty to:
- i. exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonable Director would exercise in the same circumstances;
 - ii. not disclose or distribute confidential information, other than in their capacity as a Director, to any person, or make use of or act on the confidential information;
 - iii. be bound by all Board decisions and act in accordance with the principle of collective responsibility;
 - iv. exercise the powers of the Board for proper purposes;

- v. strive to engage in extensive consultations with National Federations, Confederations, boxers, and other stakeholders within the field of boxing, in order to remain informed about matters that impact their interests;
- vi. convene meetings of the Congress in accordance with the requirements of this Constitution;
- vii. save as required by article 19.2(a), determine the Agendas of Congress meetings;
- viii. implement the decisions adopted by the Congress;
- ix. appoint, and where appropriate, remove the First Vice President;
- x. make and amend such regulations as may be required by this Constitution;
- xi. make, amend and repeal such other regulations which, in the opinion of the Board, may from time to time be, or have been, necessary or desirable for the management and administration of IBA and the sport of boxing worldwide;
- xii. admit boxing associations as Provisional Members of IBA;
- xiii. suspend National Federations from their memberships of IBA and, where appropriate, revoke such suspensions; suspend recognition of Confederation and, where appropriate, revoke such suspensions; where it is necessary to establish Normalisation Committee for the National Federation or Confederation;
- xiv. regulate relations between IBA, the Confederations and the National Federations with respect to non-IBA national and international boxing organizations;
- xv. determine criteria for redistribution of resources to Confederations and for boxing development and projects;
- xvi. establish and vary such committees as may be required by this Constitution;
- xvii. establish, vary and abolish such other committees as, in the opinion of the Board, may from time to time be, or have been, necessary or desirable for the management and administration of IBA and the sport of boxing worldwide;
- xviii. save as may otherwise be required by this Constitution or by the Regulations, appoint and dismiss the members of committees established by it;
- xix. prepare the annual budget and the annual accounts of IBA;
- xx. prepare long-term and short-term strategic plans of IBA;
- xxi. approve IBA expenditures which were not foreseen in the annual budget and which exceed the limit of the amounts which may be expended at the discretion of the Secretary General & CEO;

- xxii. appoint and, where appropriate, dismiss the Auditor;
- xxiii. appoint the Secretary General & CEO following a selection process further described in the Regulations, and, where appropriate, dismiss the Secretary General & CEO;
- xxiv. appoint and, where appropriate, dismiss the Legal Counsel;
- xxv. determine the location and dates for all IBA Competitions;
- xxvi. monitor compliance with the requirements of this Constitution;
- xxvii. lodge such complaints with the BIIU Compliance Unit with respect to alleged breaches of this Constitution or the Regulations by any persons or bodies as the Board may consider necessary or appropriate;
- xxviii. nominate persons to the Congress who the Board considers are worthy of being awarded Distinguished Service Awards;
- xxix. propose amendments to, or the replacement of, this Constitution for the consideration and determination of the Congress;
- xxx. decide to hold relationships or collaborate with other sports organizations; and
- xxxi. do all other acts and things which are either specified in this Constitution and the Regulations, or which do not fall within the competence of another body under this Constitution and the Regulations.

31. TERM OF OFFICE

- 31.1 Subject to article 34, and with the exception of those Directors referred to in article 25.1(b) and (c), the term of office of each Director shall:
 - (a) commence at the conclusion of the Election Congress Meeting at which he or she is elected; and
 - (b) end at the conclusion of the following Election Congress Meeting.
- 31.2 A Director other than a President shall be limited to a maximum of 2 (two) consecutive terms of office on the Board.
- 31.3 A President shall be entitled to serve up to 2 (two) terms of office as President without regard to any term or terms of office he or she may otherwise have served on the Board.
- 31.4 Any term or terms of office previously served by the President or any other Director as a member of the former Executive Committee of IBA shall be taken into consideration in calculating the maximum number of terms of office which such person may serve on the Board. In case of a partial term of office (notably in case of a vacancy) the following rule shall be applied: (i) a partial term of office up to 2 (two) years shall not be counted as a term of office for the purpose of calculating the maximum number of terms of office, (ii) a partial term of office more than 2 (two) years shall be counted as a term of office for the purpose of calculating the maximum number of terms of office.

32. PRESIDENT

32.1 The President has the power and, where so required by this Constitution, the duty to:

- (a) convene meetings of the Board;
- (b) chair meetings of the Congress and of the Board;
- (c) deliver reports to the Congress relating to IBA's activities and affairs;
- (d) oversee the work of the Secretary General & CEO;
- (e) ensure the decisions of Congress and the Board are implemented, and the Constitution and Regulations are complied with;
- (f) liaise and facilitate effective communication and relationships with National Federations, Confederations, sponsors and other stakeholders;
- (g) represent IBA in its dealings with the Confederations, National Federations, the IOC, national governments, international sports federations and other national and international organizations;
- (h) otherwise act as IBA's primary spokesperson; and
- (i) perform such other duties and tasks as he or she may be entrusted with from time to time by the Board.

32.2 The Board shall allocate a representational allowance to the President for activities undertaken by the President on behalf of IBA. The amount and terms of payment of such representational allowance shall be determined from time to time by the Board.

33. VICE PRESIDENTS

33.1 Following an Election Congress Meeting, the Directors elected at such meeting shall forthwith elect from among their own number the First Vice President of IBA.

33.2 Consistent with this Constitution, the First Vice President shall:

- (a) whenever necessary, exercise any of the powers of the President if the President is temporarily unable or unwilling to exercise such power or powers;
- (b) assume, as Interim President, the powers and duties of the President when required to do so in accordance with article 33.1; and
- (c) perform such other task or tasks as he or she may be entrusted with from time to time by the Board.

33.3 The First Vice President may be removed from office as First Vice President on a motion of no confidence adopted by not less than two thirds of the Directors serving on the Board at the time of the adoption of such motion.

33.4 The Board may also appoint by proposal of the President up to 4 (four) Vice Presidents who will not have a status of a Director. The term of office for such Vice Presidents ends simultaneously with the term of office the composition of the Board that appointed such Vice President irrespective of the term of office effectively served.

33.5 To be appointed at a position of Vice President, all candidates must have successfully passed the integrity check as per the mechanism described in articles 27.4 to 27.9. A candidate to a position of Vice President shall have outstanding skills and expertise in a particular area important for a development of IBA.

33.6 Consistent with this Constitution, the Vice President shall:

- (a) promote the mission and the ideals of IBA;
- (b) advise the President and the Board on the areas of his or her expertise;
- (c) visit various events as IBA representative as per instruction of the President;
- (d) present at each Board meeting without voting right;
- (e) perform the tasks entrusted to him or her by the President or by the Board.

34. VACANT EXECUTIVE POSITIONS

34.1 If the President

- (a) dies whilst in office;
- (b) resigns his or her office as President;
- (c) has been removed from office following a vote of no confidence adopted at a Congress meeting in accordance with article 17.1(d) or following a decision of ineligibility issued by the BIIU in accordance with article 27.10; or

- (d) is otherwise unable or unwilling for a period in excess of three months to exercise his or her powers as President for whatever reason;

then the First Vice President shall assume, as Interim President, the office and powers of the President until the following Congress meeting.

34.2 If the First Vice President:

- (a) dies whilst in office;
- (b) resigns his or her office as First Vice President;
- (c) has been removed from office following a vote of no confidence adopted:
 - (i) at a meeting of the Congress in accordance with article 17.1(d); or
 - (ii) by the Board in accordance with article 33.3; or
- (d) has been removed from office following a decision of ineligibility issued by the BIIU in accordance with article 27.10;
- (e) is otherwise unable or unwilling for a period in excess of three months to exercise his or her powers as First Vice President for whatever reason;
- (f) becomes Interim President in accordance with article 34.1;

then the Directors shall forthwith elect from among their own number a replacement First Vice President.

34.3 If a Director:

- (a) dies whilst in office;
- (b) resigns whilst in office on the Board;
- (c) has been removed from office following a vote of no confidence adopted at a meeting of the Congress in accordance with article 17.1(d) or following a decision of ineligibility issued by the BIIU in accordance with article 27.10; or
- (d) is otherwise unable or unwilling for a period in excess of three months to perform the duties of his or her office for whatever reason:

then

- (a) except if the concerned Director is the President, a Continental President or a member of the Athlete Committee, the position of that Director on the Board shall be deemed vacant and shall remain vacant until the following Congress Meeting.

- (b) if the concerned Director is a Continental President, the position of that Director on the Board shall be deemed vacant and shall remain vacant until the concerned Confederation elects a new Continental President. In this case the Board shall be entitled to request the concerned Confederation to hold elections of a new Continental President, and the Confederation shall conduct such elections within three (3) months following relevant request of the Board.
- (c) if the concerned Director is a member of the Athletes Committee, the position of that Director on the Board shall be deemed vacant and shall remain vacant until a replacement is elected in accordance the Regulations governing the Athletes Committee.

34.4 Save as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the Board shall make such regulations governing when and the manner in which meetings of the Board are to be conducted.

35. SIGNATURE

35.1 Save as may otherwise be provided by the Board:

- (a) any document, other than one relating to a financial or proposed financial transaction, may be executed on behalf of IBA by either the President or the Secretary General & CEO; and
- (b) a document relating to a financial or proposed financial transaction, where the amount or amounts involved exceed any limits fixed by the Board on amounts which may be expended at the discretion of the Secretary General & CEO, must be executed on behalf of IBA by any 2 (two) of the following:
 - (i) the President;
 - (ii) the First Vice President; and
 - (iii) the Secretary General & CEO.

36. BOXING INDEPENDENT INTEGRITY UNIT

36.1 The Boxing Independent Integrity Unit or BIIU shall be an operationally independent unit, in charge of dealing with all ethical and disciplinary issues (including issues related to conflicts of interest), as well as conducting eligibility checks and selecting candidates for elections, dealing with disputes resolution and providing education and development services.

36.2 The BIIU shall operate in accordance with the Boxing Independent Integrity Unit Rules, established by the Board, ensuring its full independence toward IBA and its organs. Neither BIIU Rules nor the Regulations related to BIIU activity can be amended, cancelled or replaced without preliminary approval of the BIIU Managing Board.

36.3 The BIIU shall at least consist of the following units:

- (a) The BIIU Compliance Unit, which includes the Dispute Resolution Chamber responsible to settle disputes in boxing within the scope of its competence and, the Tribunal responsible to hear cases where a breach of the Regulations allegedly accrued, including disciplinary and/or ethics violations, and to apply sanctions;
- (b) The BIIU Nomination Unit, in charge of eligibility checks and assessment of appointments and elections.

36.4 The BIIU may also include an anti-doping unit, to the extent such tasks have not been fully delegated to an independent service provider.

36.5 The BIIU administration shall be responsible for development and education of the boxing stakeholders on the matters of competence of the BIIU.

37. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEES

37.1 The following committees shall be the corporate governance committees of IBA:

- (a) the Athletes' Committee;
- (b) the Finance Committee.

37.2 Before being appointed at a corporate governance committee, all candidates must have successfully passed the integrity check as per the mechanism described in articles 27.4 to 27.9.

37.3 The Athletes' Committee shall consist of 10 (ten) boxers elected to such Committee by boxers in accordance with regulations which shall be adopted by the Board to regulate such elections and the work of the Committee.

37.4 The role of the Athletes' Committee is to:

- (a) ensure that the views and opinions of boxers are heard and considered within IBA;
- (b) enable the election from the members of the Committee of a male and a female athlete as members of the Board in accordance with article 25.1(c) and 27.3;
- (c) provide a forum for IBA to communicate to Boxers information regarding IBA's programs and policies;
- (d) support the appointment of Boxers to membership of the IOC's Athletes' Committee; and
- (e) work with and support IBA's mission to develop and promote the sport of boxing worldwide.

37.5 The Finance Committee shall consist of the following 3 (three) or more members:

- (a) a member of the Board who, where possible, possesses financial and/or accounting expertise; and
- (b) not less than two independent members possessing financial and accounting expertise.

37.6 The role of the Finance Committee shall be to:

- (a) provide advice with respect to IBA's finances and financial affairs to the Congress and the Board;
- (b) assess the viability of any projects in which IBA considers investing any money in excess of any threshold to be fixed by the Board; and
- (a) perform such other related duties and tasks as he or she may be entrusted with from time to time by the Board.

37.7 IBA's Chief Financial Officer or, where from time to time there may not be such an Officer in the employ of IBA, the IBA employee primarily responsible for IBA's financial statements and accounting records, shall be obliged to join all meetings of the Finance Committee unless excused by that Committee from doing so; and shall be entitled to speak but not to vote at such Finance Committee meetings.

37.8 The members of the Finance Committee shall be appointed by the Board as soon as reasonably possible following each Election Congress Meeting and, subject to article 37.10, shall serve terms of office ending at the conclusion of the following Election

Congress Meeting.

37.9 A member of the Finance Committee may only be removed as a member of such Committee by a motion of no confidence adopted by at least 2/3 (two thirds) of the Directors serving on the Board at the time of the adoption of such motion.

37.10 If a member of the Finance Committee:

- (a) dies whilst in office as a member of such Committee;
- (b) resigns his or her office as a member of such Committee;
- (c) is removed as a member of such Committee in accordance with article 37.9; or
- (d) is otherwise unwilling or unable to perform the duties of his or her office as a member of such Committee for whatever reason;

then the Board shall appoint such other person as it deems appropriately qualified to fill the vacant office on such Committee until the next Election Congress Meeting.

38. LEGAL COUNSEL

38.1 The role of the Legal Counsel shall be to:

- (a) provide constitutional and legal advice to the Congress and the Board; and
- (b) perform such other related duties and tasks as he or she may be entrusted with from time to time by the Board.

38.2 The Legal Counsel, together with the Auditor, shall be entitled to attend and speak at meetings of the Congress and of the Board, but shall not be entitled to vote at such meetings.
