5. REGISTRATIONS

A. PARTICIPATING BOXERS

Age eligibility: Boxers born from January 1, 1985 to December 31, 2006 will be eligible.

Introduction

The International Boxing Association (IBA) is dedicated to fostering inclusivity and upholding the highest standards of excellence in the sport. In pursuit of these values, the IBA ensures that all eligible athletes, whether amateur or professional, are provided with the opportunity to compete at the Men's Elite World Championships 2025. Although the Championships are classified as open, participation is regulated by well-defined eligibility criteria and selection principles.

Eligibility Criteria

To be considered for participation, boxers must represent IBA-affiliated National Federations and be officially entered through their respective Federations, in adherence to the IBA Technical and Competition rules, as well as the regulations outlined in the Championship Handbook. Each registered National Federation is cordially invited to enter up to one (1) boxer in each weight category. All registrations need to be done through the IBA database (<https://www.iba-database.org/nf>).

In circumstances where a Federation is unable to register its athletes, individuals may submit applications for consideration under specific categories described in Annex A. [].

- All athletes must be open class boxers, either amateur or professional.
- Each athlete must have completed a minimum of 20 verified bouts, with documentation maintained in an official record book (IBA, National Federation, or equivalent).
- Applications will be evaluated based on sporting merit, integrity, and the availability of places within each weight category. It is important to note that submission of an application does not guarantee acceptance.

Selection Process

The IBA ad hoc Selection Committee is responsible for evaluating all applications to ensure a process that is fair, transparent, and competitive. The Committee comprises senior executives, including the Secretary General & CEO, Sports Director, Representative of IBA Pro, International Relations Director, and Legal Counsel.

Registration Procedure

All applications and supporting documents are to be submitted to the designated email address: mwch2025@iba.sport. Final decisions regarding athlete participation will be communicated by 15 November 2025.

Summary

The IBA employs an inclusive yet selective approach to the Men's Elite World Championships 2025. While national nominations constitute the standard pathway to participation, individual applications, whether from amateur or professional athletes, may be considered in exceptional situations. Ultimately, final selections are determined by verified records, individual achievements, and the quota availability of slots in each weight category.

- Monitor hydration closely and provide electrolyte-based fluids throughout the day
- Utilize shaded or ventilated warm-up areas and cooling devices (fans, ice packs, cooling towels)
- Encourage the use of breathable clothing and sun protection (caps, sunscreen)
- Observe athletes for any signs of heat-related discomfort (dizziness, cramps, fatigue)
- Adjust warm-up and pacing strategies during early competition days
- Inform the IBA medical team in advance of any athlete with heat sensitivity or pre-existing conditions

The Organizing Committee will implement all necessary medical and sanitary safety measures, including on-site medical supervision, hydration and cooling points, and established emergency procedures, to ensure athlete health and safety throughout the event.
