

Summary

Senior Officer of the Congolese National Police (PNC) and accomplished sports executive with extensive experience in institutional security, strategic leadership, human resource management, and sports governance.

A dynamic and multidisciplinary leader, combining high-level command responsibilities with strong engagement in the Olympic movement and the development of professional sports in Africa.

II. Institutional Career – Congolese National Police (PNC)

Rank: Principal Divisional Commissioner (Equivalent to Major General)

Director of Social Affairs

Oversight of social policies and welfare programs for PNC personnel.

Commander, Unit for the Protection of Institutions and High-Profile Personalities (UPIHP)

Led strategic protection operations for state institutions and senior officials.

Commander, National Intervention Legion (LENI)

Provincial Commander, PNC – Kasai-Central (Kananga)

Commander, National Intervention Police – Haut-Katanga

Deputy Commander, Rapid Intervention Police (PIR)

Deputy Commander, National Intervention Legion (LENI)

Head of Logistics Department

Head of Finance Department

III. Sports & Olympic Leadership

Interim President, IBA Africa (Current)

Vice President, Congolese Olympic Committee (COC) (2022 – Present)

Vice President, African Boxing Confederation (AFBC) (2022 – 2025)

President, Congolese Boxing Federation (FCB) (2018 – Present)

Key Achievement: Led major structural reforms and revitalized both amateur and professional boxing in the DRC.

President, Kinshasa Boxing League (2014 – 2018)

IV. Professional Boxing Promotion

Promoter of Junior Makabu

Managed the career of a world-renowned Congolese boxing champion.

Event Management

Organized international professional boxing events, promoted Congolese athletes globally, and contributed significantly to the growth of professional boxing in Africa.

V. Key Skills

Security Strategy: Strategic planning and execution in public safety and national security

Administrative Management: Oversight of institutional, social, and financial operations

Sports Governance: Organizational structuring and policy development

Diplomacy: International relations and stakeholder engagement

Event Promotion: Large-scale sports event organization

Leadership: Proven ability to lead in high-pressure, complex environments

VI. Languages

Swahili: Native

Lingala: Native

French: Fluent

English: Basic / Working knowledge

VII. Core Strengths

Multidisciplinary Leadership: Extensive experience across security, sports governance, and business promotion

Strategic Vision: Proven ability to develop and structure sports institutions at national and continental levels

Institutional Credibility: Recognized expertise in both national security and international sports leadership

Global Influence: Active role in promoting African talent on the international stage